InSitu Advisory is a leading corporate advisory and valuation consultancy providing bespoke, high quality advisory services to the Waste Management, Resource Recovery and Extractive Industries. We have over 50 years of corporate advisory experience, with a large number of clients operating in the waste management sectors throughout Australia, New Zealand and South East Asia.

Waste Strategy and Planning
- Review of existing waste practices and the development of waste management strategies
- Waste management solutions: Feasibility appraisals and analysis of waste minimisation, collection, treatment and waste disposal solutions
- Waste facility master planning
- Development of construction tender support.

Advisory Services
- Expert witness
- Peer review
- Asset and business valuations
- Financial modelling and cost breakdown
- Community consultation
- Waste management plans (demolition, construction and operational phase) for residential, commercial and industrial development application support

Our team has considerable industry experience and market knowledge, providing expert advisory and valuation advice in all types of waste management assets and businesses.
Construction Quality Assurance

- Construction supervision
- Construction quality assurance
- Site auditing
- Materials selection and assessment
- Third party review
- Geotechnical supervision (trial pits and boreholes)
- Reporting

Waste Facility Engineering & Management

- Site selection and investigation
- Groundwater assessments
- Landfill facility concept design and layout
- Landfill capping and rehabilitation designs
- Closure planning
- Construction project management
- Technical specification and CQA plan drafting and approvals
- Waste facility concept and detailed designs
- Waste facility audits
- Facility environmental management and compliance support
- Landfill investigations and remediation support
- Operations support

Our internationally experienced staff provide practical tailored solutions that exceed our clients’ expectations

InSitu Advisory’s experience of the engineering and regulatory aspects of the waste management and resource recovery industry has given our staff a thorough understanding of the inter-related technical, environmental, social and financial issues involved in the design, construction and operation of modern waste handling and treatment facilities.

Our services are provided globally to a diverse range of business, legal, regulatory and governmental clients.

Specialist advice to the Waste Management, Resource Recovery and Extractive Industries.

www.insituadvisory.com